

Effective Retirement in the 21st Century Client Event set for April 8th

LOS GATOS, CA – March 12th, 2008 - Integra Insurance Services has announced the date for the Effective Retirement in the 21st Century personal insurance client appreciation event will be held on April 8th. The beautiful J. Lohr Winery in San Jose will be the venue for this event. This is one of many client education events aimed at helping our valued personal insurance clients.

Ryan Fenchel, Principal of Integra Insurance Services, comments, "Our commercial client retirement educational events have been so successful that it was time to answer the retirement planning needs of our valued personal insurance clients. I hope our clients will take advantage of this unique educational opportunity".

During this event guests will be treated to delicious food and wine pairings from J. Lohr's award winning wine collection.

For more information about Integra Insurance Services please visit www.integra-insurance.com

###