

September 19th Integra Client Appreciation Event Sold Out!

LOS GATOS, CA - September 1st, 2007 - Integra Insurance Services' follow on Client Appreciation Event Securing Retirement Through Your Business scheduled for September 19th is sold out!

"The tremendous success of our June 28th event prompted our team to put on a follow on event" comments Ryan Fenchel, Principal of Integra Insurance Services, "The demands of running a business today makes it nearly impossible for a business owner to pick from the multitude of retirement options available to them. Our professional business retirement team enables business owners to make the right choice that fits their goals and desires."

During the event guests were treated to delicious food and wine pairings from J. Lohr's award winning wine collection.

For more information about Integra Insurance Services please visit www.integra-insurance.com

###